Disclaimer

I would like you to note that SapphireClan is a real clan, and very nice to roleplay on. You can join it by visiting the app DrawCast, and go to the account Rain-Chan. I would also like you to note that none of the cats in this book are mine, except Ripplescorch, and that this is a bit of a fan fiction about the past. Also that some of these cats I made up. Thank you,

Allegiences

Prologue

Ripplepaw swiftly scampered out of camp and inhaled the clean night air. He continued to run through sky forest, and to the abandoned twoleg nest. He waited a few heartbeats and saw a ginger figure growing larger.
